Invisible Government Scores Again

AMAZING DOCUMENT REVEALS PLAN TO ERADICATE CHRISTIAN TRADITION IN AMERICA

Once again the season approaches when some ministers and school teachers will help mortal enemies of Christianity destroy the traditions of Christmas.

I am reminded of a warning issued by the Brooklyn Tablet, one of the foremost Catholic weeklies of America, Jan. 21, 1956:

"The drive to abolish the observance of Christmas in public schools across the nation, after having achieved only scattered success in the past, will be more closely organized in the future to attain greater effectiveness.

"This was revealed in 'Committee Reporter,' publication of the American Jewish Committee, with headquarters at 384 4th Ave., N. Y. C. in an article titled 'Christmas in July.'

"The AJC blames the lack of greater success in the anti-Christmas movement partly on the delay in raising the issue until Christmas is approaching and recommends that discussion of it be started in July.

"The AJC . . . recommends a 'quiet reconnaissance . . . before any forays are launched' on what schools observe Christmas and how they observe it.

"And it should never be a one-man foray', the AJC warns.

"Once the reconnaissance has been made, the necessary information obtained, the time is right for intensive discussions among representative local Jewish leaders and rabbis . . .

"For schools where 'the existing situation needs remedying' (that is, where Christmas is observed by Christian pupils—Editor), the AJC says the most effective way is 'to undertake a sober year-round program designed to acquaint Christian clergy, school personnel and others with the views held by Jewish organizations on the broader question of religion in the public schools.

"Like all education techniques,' it continues, 'this calls for patience, a great deal of patience, but it has proved its worth in many communities.'

Bear in mind that Jewish pupils can always be excused from Christmas celebrations. Obviously then the aim is to destroy the Christmas custom.

INFILTRATING THE CHRISTIANS

Analyze this document. Here is a coldly calculated, long-term strategy mapped by one of the richest and most powerful organizations in world history, to wipe out every vestige of Christian custom, every evidence of Christianity, in the public schools. And the master strategists boast that already this master plan "has proved its worth in many communities."

Now let's look at another document published by the same American Jewish Committee, a document published only for its fellow Jews. This is the 280 page AMERICAN JEWISH COMMITTEE BUDGET, for 1953. This report reveals that the same American Jewish Committee (affiliate of the ADL), which is working so diligently behind the scenes to guide its people in wiping

The late President John F. Kennedy

While we did not agree with many of the policies and appointees of John F. Kennedy, we respected him as President of the United States and had hopes he would some day unloose the shackles that bound him and turn on the traitors who held him captive. Was the Invisible Government he served so well responsible for his assassination?

Lyndon Baines Johnson

We sincerely regret the tragedy that has befallen our country and extend our heartfelt sympathy and prayers to the family of the late President.

We wish the new President success. He faces many grave problems. We pledge our undivided loyalty when he is right. We will oppose him just as vigorously when he is wrong.

out Christianity in the schools, at the same time has infiltrated the biggest organization of Christian ministers in our country, the National Council of Churches (formerly Federal Council of Churches), and the content of the report shows not only the intent, but actual details of how it is warping and "rewriting," using and destroying Christianity from within.

I cannot think of any more worthwhile way to impress you with the magnitude of this dastardly undertaking than to quote whole pages from the AJC Report. The audacity of this group of alien minded, fabulously rich, politically organized and boundlessly ambitious group of international gangsters is all but incredible.

The quotes begin on page 96:

"Christian religious education, a subject of major concern to the American Jewish Committee within the past few years, has likewise enjoyed a phenomenal development. . . . As the Church gains strength, new responsibilities obviously devolve upon our Division if we are to help influence the attitudes of Americans through their church experience. The religious school, which now embraces a substantial segment of American youth, bears even more careful examination than in the past. As a result of our closer associations with religious educators, we are in a better position to encourage them to assume greater responsibility, both for eliminating prejudicial material and for making constructive intergroup education a part of their programs.

AJC SPONSORS SOCIAL ACTION GROUPS

"In many of our approaches to the Christian churches, we enlist the active support of the Jewish religious bodies. On occasion we find it desirable, particularly in the social action field to call upon the Synagogue Council of America and its constituents for representation. On the other hand, our Christian educators have come to regard our agency, as having special competence in intergroup education and have no hesitation in calling upon us for counsel."

Notice that, whereas for centuries it was the rabbis who kept alive the hatred for Christianity, and who exercised nearly all the leadership over the Jewish flocks, now it is the AJC, dominated by the international Jewish bankers who seem so determined to run all the governments and peoples of the world. (Herbert Lehman of Lehman & Co., for many years has been a Vice Pres. and policy maker of the AJC. This is the same Sen. Lehman who was revealed during the war, by an emissary from Moscow, to be "the very big boss" of the revolution in America, as disclosed in Major Jordan's Diaries.) The AJC now is organizing and using the rabbis in its program of power politics, the objectives of which you will see as we continue to quote:

"OBJECTIVES: The objectives of our Division in the light of the foregoing are:

"1—To effect favorable changes in the attitudes of Christians towards Jews and Judaism by encouraging and assisting eduational and social action programs within the Protestant and Catholic churches.

(Note: The social action programs of the churches all are socialistic, internationalist and integrationist, making the white race forget its own welfare and future welfare of its children and favor mass immigration of all the motley races of the world.)

"2—To enlist the support of church and church-related bodies in mutually agreed-upon projects of social action, such as combatting discrimination, improving immigration legislation, etc.

"3—To establish lines of communication with these bodies and with Jewish religious agencies, both national and local, in order to deal with specific community relations problems. . .

RESOURCES WITHIN THE AGENCY

"In carrying out our program, the resources of our agency are, of course, indispensable. The following facilities are utilized:

"1—The Library of Information provides us with a daily report on religious activities affecting our work, alerting us to new needs and indicating where we may find support for our program. This information also supplies the basis of our own materials, such as news items concerning intergroup cooperation which we have occasion to publicize.

"2—The Production and Magazine Divisions frequently supply us with materials for use in Protestant and Catholic press; stories and illustrations for curricular materials, etc.

"3—The Community Services Dept. enables us to make available to church groups publications of the American Jewish Committee as well as materials published elsewhere which are recommended by the Community Service Dept.

"4—The Community Activities Dept. has assisted, during the past three years, in developing within a considerable number of chapters, a group of lay people to carry out our educational program on a local level and furnish us with guidance for program development. From these chapters we have developed a national lay committee which meets at frequent intervals to provide us with guidance and support for our program.

"5—The Civil Rights Division furnishes information and advice concerning tension areas where community relations problems involve the religious groups.

"6—The Radio and Television Division furnishes guidance in religious programs and alerts us to objectionable material used by these media in programs having religious content, particularly during Christmas and Easter.

"7—The Film Division renders similar services in its field, particularly with reference to biblical films.

"8—The Youth Division's staff serves as resource people for religious youth conferences. Materials of this Division are utilized in servicing religious youth agencies.

"9—The Intergroup Education Division is consulted frequently in helping us suggest intercultural programs for religious groups. We have developed many contacts between the staff of religious groups and our intergroup consultant.

"10—The Legal and Investigative Dept. from time to time furnishes us with information sought by church groups, particularly those confronted with the problem of reactionary opposition to social action programs."

I am sure you have not overlooked the scope and organization of this machine, its thoroughness in spying on American religious and social life, and its strange zeal for changing us to suit its wishes.

IV. RESOURCES OUTSIDE THE AGENCY

"Our primary resource group within Protestantism is the National Council of Churches of Christ's two major divisions—Christian Life and Work; and the Division of Christian Education. In the former, the following four departments cooperate closely with us: Racial and Cultural Relations; International Justice and Goodwill; Research; and, most frequently, Central Administration. Within the Division of Christian Education, our major contacts are with the Dept. of Intergroup Education, established cooperatively by the American Jewish Committee, the ADL and the National Council of Churches; and the Departments of Leadership Education, Curriculum, Audio-Visual Aids, and Publications.

"Our primary Catholic contact is with the National Catholic Welfare Conference, particularly the department of Education and Press. We also work with the National Catholic Biblical Association, Catholic University of America, other Catholic universities, and individual chanceries.

"Other sources include the World Council of Churches, in connection with such issues as Israel, DP legislation, immigration; State and City Church Councils and Ministerial Associations, in dealing with local problems; the Religious Education Association; the Catholic and Protestant press; the Protestant Film and Radio Commission; National Conference of Christians and Jews. . .

V. METHODS AND MATERIAL

"We are concerned, therefore, not only with what is taught in Christian education, but with the attitudes of the educator who trains the teachers, and of the teachers themselves. The environment surrounding the learning process also concerns us.

"The attitudes of the individual child in the Sunday School class are influenced by the group itself as much as by what his teachers seek to impart. . . Thus, what we are concerned with is not simply changing what is said about Jews and Judaism in the literature of Christian education, but introducing a new and positive view of Jews and Judaism into the dynamics of Christian education. Our approach seeks to take advantage of the group life fostered by church organizations. . .

"In education . . . our aid is given on many levels and in a variety of ways: calling attention to objectionable educational material; helping to produce positive material; helping to train teachers, ministers and teacher-trainers; providing audio-visual aids and similar services."

Unfortunately, our space is limited. But I must add one statement made at the bottom of page 99:

"The growth of fundamentalism, referred to above, presents us with severe handicaps in the social action field."

And I must also add two or three paragraphs beginning at the bottom of page 100:

"1—The establishment of a Dept. of Intergroup Education within the National Council of Churches, beginning July 1, 1951, represents a firm commitment on the part of Protestant educators to intergroup education in religious training. In the first nine months of its existence the Dept. has gained status and recognition. It has now reached the point where it is called upon regularly to provide material to hundreds of organizations. Almost every branch of Protestantism is beginning to turn to this office for intergroup and interfaith materials. It has been invited to create manuals for study groups in interfaith problems.

"2—Meetings with top Protestant leadership have now been established on a regular basis . . .

"5—Our Division has now achieved sufficient recognition in the interreligious field so that outside agencies and mass media turn to us for guidance. For example, a national network preparing an Easter script, Pontius Pilate, was referred to us by the NCCJ (National Conference of Christians and Jews) for guidance."

Obviously the literature your children are reading in Sunday School and the "educational" and "religious" films they are shown under church auspices, are of doubtful origin if your church is affiliated with the National Council. We must no longer expect the literature to be Christian or American. The program of the AJC as above revealed is political and entirely pro-Jewish, not pro-Christian. How could it be pro-Christian when it is the AJC which takes the lead in driving out the last suggestion of Christmas and Christian traditions from the schools?

Do you suppose your minister knows about the working arrangements "established cooperatively by the American Jewish Committee, the Anti-Defamation League and the National Council of Churches" with the departments of the National Council of Churches? Why not take this and have a talk with him about it to see if he can find some other source of Sunday School and church literature and films?

CHRISTMAS (?) SEALS

CHRISTIAN PATRIOTS AWAKEN!

Are you a gullible sucker? Did you send in money for Christmas Seals? Did you notice all the Anti Christians listed as officers on the promotional sales letter? In Los Angeles County, even one Director was the wife of a self confessed communist.

For years past the word Christmas has been eliminated from half the Seals. Why? Didn't you notice or have you also been Brainwashed? Why has the name been changed to "Tuberculosis and Health Assn." Are they trying to use you to foster the Un-American Mental Health Program?

When "Non-Christians" assume control of a Christian project and exploit a Christian Observance (The Birth of Christ) it should prove to the naive, unsuspecting trusting and charitable Christians that foreign ideologists are doing something unsavory in the NAME of Christianity. Did you ever see a Christian listed as an officer of the B'nai B'rith, or its gestapo, the Anti-Defamation League?

CHRISTMAS (?) SEALS "COME ON"

The cost to get you to buy seals that are not CHRISTMAS SEALS, is so great that some Assns. do not now even tell you of the expenditures in the "Come On" letter. The L. A. Co. letter of 1961 listed NOT 100% expended BUT 101.8%, with a cost that must have been between 50 and 75%.

The 1962 letter lists a Jew, Harold P. Levy as President AND 108.5% as expended. Figure that out.

They had donated thru the Jewish controlled newspapers, and Jewish owned TV and Radio, about 5 times as much free advertising as heretofore. If they had paid for it, the expenses percentage of receipts would have been at least 75%, including cost of professional fund raisers.

Do those CHRISTIANS who lend their names realize how they are being used or do they just like to see their names in print?

Don't buy the SEALS till all of them have the word CHRISTMAS thereon. Contribute to those charities that are not anti-Christian controlled.

Why not THINK, TALK and ACT like CHRISTIANS?

Isn't it sacrilegious to have the most cherished "Christian Observance Day" exploited by haters of Christianity?

Each year fewer Christians will use these seals until this condition is changed.

Is the Seals matter part of the Commie and 'Anti-Christians' Campaign to downgrade the use of the name of Christ and Christmas?

When will Patriotic Christians awaken to the fact that "they are being taken," and being the dupes, the gullible stooges, the suckers, falling for the un-American and Alien PROPAGANDA?

Anti-Christian exploiters OK a Commercial Christmas Season for the "Shopkeepers," but not as a Religious Observance.

Think of how the latest Bible has been purportedly "modernized" with un-Truths, while anti-Christians and subversives are demanding further changes, especially about the Birth of Christ and His Crucifixion.

Do you think the Anti-Christians allow Christians to influence their organizations, as do they with the National Council of Churches, which also seems "to be falling" for the Commie Line?

If you contribute to a YMCA or YWCA, as a Christian, you'd better check regarding Subversives and Anti-Christians as Directors, Officers, Employees, Advisory Committeemen, etc. You'll be astounded.

Use "Christmas" on your cards NOT "Holiday" or "Season" greetings.

The Wall St. Journal of 11/9/62 states that the U.S. Post Office submitted 4 designs of the 1962 CHRISTMAS 4¢ postage stamp to Jewish leaders for approval before printing. Isn't that an insult to Christians? Nothing about Christ or Christianity thereon.

"Hate"

Edgar A. Guest, great American poet, wrote:

"Men seldom fight the things they do not hate.

A vice grows strong on mildly-tempered scorn.

Rank thrives the weed the gardeners tolerate.

You cannot stroke the snake that lies in wait,

And change his nature with tomorrow's morn.

If roses are to bloom, the weeds must go. Vice be dethroned, if virtue is to reign.

Honor and shame together cannot grow. Sin either conquers or we lay it low.

Wrong must be hated if the truth remain."

Look who's to be "impartial"

Rabbi Finkelstein and Chief Justice Warren

"Probably some Right Wing bigot"—that is what the Supreme Court Justice of the U. S. Earl Warren said upon being informed of the assassination of President Kennedy.

This is the same Earl Warren who rendered the infamous Black Monday decision on integration and banned prayers from our public schools.

Warren, who studied Talmudic Law under Dr. Louis Finkelstein (above) of the Jewish Theological Seminary according to the NY Times, 9/14/57 has been appointed by President Johnson to head an "impartial" investigation in the assassination of President Kennedy by Lee Oswald, avowed communist.

It is our belief that the public will never know the real truth and that this Warren committee was set-up to censor the FBI report by the Invisible Government.

Will TRUTH Prevail?

Certainly no decent-minded Christian would rejoice in the assassination of a President. Christians abhor violence except in self defense. The right way to "eliminate" an undesirable public servant is through ballots or impeachment, and this is what the Right Wing planned to do. The events of the past week should give our naive public officials something to think about. However, there is more to the assassination of President Kennedy than has been so far revealed. The TV/Radio spectacle was obviously designed to turn opposition to Kennedy the President to support for Kennedy the Martyr.

There are many possibilities but no doubt Kennedy outlived his usefulness as a front for communism and democracy (Jews)—or did he finally "about face?" If the truth is ever known, we may find that JFK was assassinated (or liquidated) by those who posed as his best friends. The alleged assassin, Lee Oswald, was but one gear in the machinery designed to crush the Republic. When it appeared that Kennedy by his public policies was losing support many believe the Invisible Government went to work: get rid of the man but keep his policies.

Then too, it was becoming more evident that Kennedy could not possibly carry the South in the next election. His assassination could change all that as Lyndon Johnson could better carry the South and thus save the Democratic Party.

Kennedy was becoming increasingly unpopular with the Civil Rights program which he was shoving down the throats of the American people. Now our new President assures us he will continue where Kennedy left off, "in honor of the late President" so he tells us. What Kennedy could not accomplish as President, he will now accomplish as a "martyr." The following item from the Chicago Tribune, Nov. 26, is an indication of what we can expect in the future:

"Johnson administration forces won their first congressional victory tonight . . . The Senate voted 57 to 35 to kill a bill that could have prevented the sale of wheat to Russia, after hearing a letter written by the late President Kennedy." (elimination of trade barriers with the U.S.S.R.—Ed).

Another possible reason for the assassination of JFK is to give the Invisible Government a "reason" to tighten arms control and thus disarm the citizens of the U. S. prior to the final takeover. Again we quote the Chicago Tribune, Nov. 26, 1963:

"Police Supt. Orlando Wilson said . . . he would like to see changes in laws to provide tighter control over the sale and possession of guns. I'm not satisfied with the gun laws." (elimination of right to bear arms—Ed).

There is a so-called campaign on to abolish both the right and left wing. The left wing will not stop its activities, but this is a way to eliminate all patriots and leave the government in the hands of traitors with no opposition.

Thus far only two culprits have been exposed in the conspiracy to assassinate President Kennedy. Lee Oswald, a professed communist and excellent "fall guy," and Jack Rubinstein, a Zionist Jew and alleged owner of three burlesque houses. We cannot help but wonder why Jack Rubinstein was permitted in the jail where utmost security measures were taken to guard Lee Oswald. According to the Associated Press, 12/2/63, Rubinstein's attorney, Tom Howard, quoted Rubinstein as saying he entered the basement by simply walking unchallenged past two officers guarding the entrance.

Rubinstein claims he murdered Oswald, a handcuffed prisoner of the Federal Government, because he loved the President so much; he also claims he did not know Oswald. Did you notice that look of recognition in the TV pictures that Oswald gave Rubinstein seconds before he was murdered? Then too, why did the FBI before Lee Oswald was murdered, ask Mrs. Oswald if she knew Jack Rubinstein?

It will be interesting to see what penalty Jack Rubinstein gets for silencing Oswald, one source through which we could have learned the facts. What did Oswald know that Rubinstein had to silence him forever? Could he have been the key to the entire diabolical conspiracy not only to assassinate the President, but to take over the Republic through further treachery? We are thankful Oswald was caught. God alone knows what would have been in store for our country if he had gotten away with his part of the crime.

And the height of folly is the appointment of Earl Warren to make an impartial investigation into the assassination of JFK. Something like thieves investigating robberies or the Daily Worker investigating communists.

Warren's first comment when told of the assassination was "probably some right wing bigot" which is indicative of the "impartiality" we can expect. Suppose this case goes to the Supreme Court, then what?

"Chosen" People?

"It was enough to make old Peter Stuyvesant stomp around on his stump. From Brazil, 23 Jews had arrived in Governor Stuyvesant's New Amsterdam in 1654. Peter sent off a letter to his superiors in the Dutch West India Company seeking permission (unsuccessfully) to evict the members of the 'very repugnant, deceitful race, hateful enemies and blasphemers of the name of Christ, lest they infect and trouble this new colony with their customary usury and deceitful trading.'"

"The directors replied stating that it would be unfair in view of the large amount of capital which the Jews had invested in the Dutch West India Company."

The above is taken from an unmarked magazine clipping and confirmed in the Universal Jewish Encyclopedia, Vol. 8, page 176.

"If you are afraid to discuss the issues—
You will be afraid to meet the crisis."

1963-A Year Of Crises

WHAT OF THE FUTURE?

The year 1963 has been one of the most difficult since we have been in business. The serious illness and death of our editor, Conde McGinley, on July 1st, has left an emptiness at our headquarters impossible to explain. All who knew Conde loved him and you can't imagine how we miss him. Everything here reflects his personality.

Conde was always so grateful for every subscription, every order, every postage stamp, every dollar, every prayer, the nice letters sent in by subscribers. Many times he would take time out of a busy day to tell us about someone he met years back, or someone he knew only through correspondence. We, too, are most grateful for your help and letters of encouragement.

It doesn't seem possible the year 1963 has come to an end and that the holiday season is on top of us. We have been so busy we don't know where the year went. We are ashamed when we look at our back-log of correspondence and hope you will bear with us if we have seemingly neglected you. We are trying to do the impossible with an extremely small staff, limited funds and no end of problems—but we are hopeful 1964 will be a better year for us and that we will be able to do a better job all around.

We, like Conde McGinley, dislike asking for financial help, but we do need funds to carry on this crusade. Due to the tense world situation and stepped up activity in the Right Wing our work has increased tremendously. In addition to the capable staff trained by Conde McGinley, we need extra office help, which would solve much of our back-log problem; we need new equipment to replace what we now have with "tired blood;" we have several worthwhile projects we would like to complete; we need a writer and full time investigator. The low subscription rate of one dollar gets the message to the grass roots which is all important, but it does not finance special projects or even pay overhead expenses. The sale of books and papers help tremendously to educate the people, but it does not subsidize our work. Our mailing list is increasing by leaps and bounds; our real trouble is growing pains.

As the holiday season approaches, please keep us in mind. What better way to preserve Christianity and save our country than to send us a contribution? Your help, no matter how small, is appreciated. Also remember us throughout the year for our expenses go on each day we stay in this fight. We do not run up bills we cannot pay, then appeal for funds. We operate within our means and take care of necessary expenses first. When we can't meet those vital expenses, we will be forced to close our doors. Thus far, thanks to our many wonderful and unknown readers, we have been able to stay afloat. Your contributions, your prayers, your letters, all help.

While our hearts are heavy, we are determined to do our best while there is yet time. Next year there may be even less of a Christmas—just a memory for those behind the iron curtain. Nevertheless, we want you to know how grateful we are for your continued loyalty and wish you the real peace of the Christ child now and through the coming year.

—The Staff

Behind The Scenes

DOMINICAN REPUBLIC

Volume 4, World Book Encyclopedia, 1961, reports the following under Dominican Republic:

"Most Dominicans are mixed Spanish, Negro, and Indian blood. The Arawak Indians were the original inhabitants of the region, but they died out from disease and overwork soon after the Spaniards arrived in 1492. The Spaniards brought in other Indians, as well as African Negro slaves, to work their plantations. No European settlers except Spaniards were allowed in the country until the late 1700's. Refugees from Central Europe, mostly Jews, were admitted in 1940. They prospered so much that other Europeans were allowed to enter the country to live."

Leon Falk, Jr., Pittsburgh industrialist, shed additional light on this 1940 exodus of Jews to the Dominican Republic, then governed by Gen. Rafael Trujillo.

"Back in 1939, FDR called a conference on political refugees in Switzerland. Thirty-four countries sent representatives. The political refugees represented all groups and faiths, but most of them were Jews. Trujillo offered to take in 100,000 refugees . . . . We must have got thousands out of concentration camps, mostly from France."

With a Dominican visa, many of the refugees were able to go to other countries. Mr. Falk recalled that 16 professors at the University of Santo Domingo were former political refugees. (Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, 6/2/61).

Between April, 1939 and November, 1940, over 7,000 Spanish Loyalist refugees who had been languishing in Southern French camps were admitted without passports to the Dominican Republic. These Marxist refugees lost no time in forming 20 Spanish Democratic Centres to carry on their pro-communist and anti-Franco propaganda. They staged revolutionary plays, infiltrated social and cultural groups, joined the University faculty—all for the sole purpose of spreading Marxist doctrine and extolling the Soviet Union. (Human Events, 4/22/59).

On March 6, 1962 (after Trujillo's murder), Fulton Lewis, Jr. reported:

"Castro agents are infiltrating every branch of the Dominican government, industry, labor, the state university, and other sectors of national life." (N.Y. Mirror, 3/6/62).

In December, 1962, Juan Bosch, who had been exiled from the Dominican Republic for 25 years, was elected President. He immediately proceeded to Switzerland and borrowed $150,000,000 from the International Bankers, plus an additional advance loan of $15,000,000, which has yet to be accounted for. (Wanderer, 10/24/63). Bosch allowed many other political exiles to return to the country, many of whom were openly communist. Bosch's main advisor appeared to be a naturalized U.S. citizen of Roumanian birth, Sasha Volman. The 'progressive left' with which Volman identifies himself, considers that the answer for Latin America is to out-communize the communist. The most articulate and influential of this element are Eastern European refugees who have the ear of Washington officials, as a result of which some are reported to enjoy sinecure positions that enable them to pursue their doctrine south of the border. (Washington Post, 6/2/63).

In other words, for the past 23 years, these Jews have apparently been calling the shots in the Caribbean and Latin America, but they are not in positions where they must bear the responsibility for any decisions made.

SHOULD STOCKS BE SOLD?

By Douglas M. Smith, Editor

Smith Index of Money Factors, World Political and Economic Forces

I do not think the time has come to sell all stocks. Switching out of poor stocks into those more likely to benefit from automation, research and elimination of excess overhead is important. The average investor in securities is influenced by fear or optimism rather than logic. The market is not a "get rich quick" booth. It is an open market place for buyers and sellers.

Most of the millions of holders of stocks have never operated under a dollar convertible into gold yet they apparently are using the same technical factors to judge the market that were in use in 1934. Unless we compensate for a non-convertible dollar constantly depreciating in value at the ratio of deficit spending, or monetary inflation, to net income by changing our market evaluators, we may sell before the end of this inflation cycle is reached.

The length of a business recovery or trend in the stock market is unimportant by itself as time alone has no tangible affect on the market when the currency is non-convertible into gold. The only value to our paper dollar is its exchange value for labor, commodities, products and interest sales. In France the Franc lost 99% of its purchasing value from 1915 to 1955 and common stocks advanced to compensate for the drop in the Franc. Bonds followed the downward trend to the Franc and became practically worthless. How long it will take our dollar to drop 99% in purchasing value, taking 1940 as basis, is hard to say. I would judge that it has already depreciated somewhere in the neighborhood of 60% and is now accelerating at a faster pace.

My index is intended to give business men ample warning of when to curtail expenditures and inventory and when to look for an upturn of length in general business and consumer spending. At present the velocity rate or turnover of money spending is at a new high since the late 1920's but not yet at its probable peak or at the 1929 high.

The Soviet wheat deal will aid Canada and will give the Soviets a new product to barter. They have bartered oil for a long time very successfully. I do not believe they intend to use it all for themselves. They have a strong foreign policy and know where they are going. Washington does not seem to understand their moves. The U. S. on the other hand does not have any rudder to its foreign or domestic policies thus it is a "ship without a rudder" in a very difficult channel of international commerce. This is one reason why our dollar is depreciating in value in the eyes of European nations. Any sell-off in the market should be temporary as I feel the primary trend is still up.

Would appreciate your comments on the Douglas M. Smith opinion when writing us.
